

One connected spiral. Both squares share actual triangle edges.

T0 supports the main square. T-3 supports the first detached square.
The gap and overhang follow from the triangle vertices. No length copies.